SWIMMING CLUB MONTH 10

Calcutta winner
Pat Bryant with Margie Turner.
Simon Story in background.

The final month
of our season
has concluded

and we ushered in the silly season with a bit of welcome variety, which included 400m swims on Thursdays.

The "Big Kahuna" and the "Latino Eco Vandal" took out the year's big prizes with a well deserved win to Marky Mark in the Col Bowes.

On Tuesday 16 November 2004, for the very first time, we conducted 25 metre 'dashes'.
The results were very interesting and swimmers were able to back up and enjoy multiple races. The opportunity to include the 25 metre 'dash' in the Championships is very tempting. Your feedback would be appreciated. I extend to all swimmers best wishes for the festive season, good luck in the ocean swims and hope to see you all
(and some extras) in the New Year.

Results of month 10 swimming were:

TATTERSALLS CLUB SNOOKER AND BILLIARDS LEGEND

Eddie was the most truly professional snooker player because of his total dedication to the game attributable to his fitness and willingness to practice by himself for hours at a time.

I remember Eddie once telling me that one of his biggest thrills in life was when, at the age of eleven, he was put up to play the great Walter Lindrum in an exhibition frame. He actually ended up winning on the black ball, though he did say he was sure that Walter let him win.

So now Eddie, Australia's most successful snooker player joins Australia's and the world's greatest ever billiard players whose names shall live on as greats of the green baize.

What we will miss most about Eddie is no longer seeing his marvellous skill and tenacious approach to the game on our magnificent match table, nor his meticulous approach to the game.

Eddie asked me to iron the table before one of his Calcutta matches and during the course of the game he overran the cue ball for position on a blue and he abruptly said "I shouldn't have asked you to iron the table".

Eddie's most notable achievements were 20 times Australian Snooker Champion, three times runner-up in the World Snooker Championship, three time Pot Black Champion, World Matchplay Snooker Champion, World Open Snooker Champion and four times runner-up in the World Professional Billiards Championship. Eddie also won the 1988 Tattersalls Club Handicap Championship (commonly called the Calcutta).

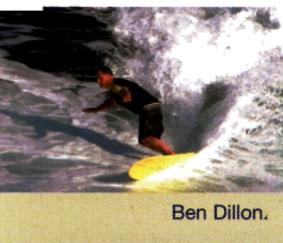

Eddie frequently was used as commentator on numerous television tournaments because of his knowledge of the game.

He is survived by five children and eight grandchildren.

Ben Dillon.

M. Roufiel & Kahuna.

Well another action packed weekend at Werri Beach has just concluded.

Some good surfing was witnessed on both days, particularly from Messrs Dillon, Maunsell and Atkins, so the yellow leaders jersey is being keenly contested.

The Kahuna suffered an injury on Sunday morning following a wipe-out, and first indication was to lay the blame on the Dugong. The rules however were rechecked, and it appears his responsibility only extends to a radius of 20 kms from the mishap. He was just outside this, in his car on the way back to Sydney. However, following further discussion the blame was shifted back to the Dugong, because of his past actions which have caused us all to take radical evasive action in wipe-outs. As luck would have it, we had Doctors Geoff Glover and Tim Maunsell to attend, Geoff tightening the Kahuna's leg rope over the wound, to allow further surfing, and reduce the flow of blood into the water. This together with Clapham's liquid burley laugh into the sea, would be sure to bring the afterdark.

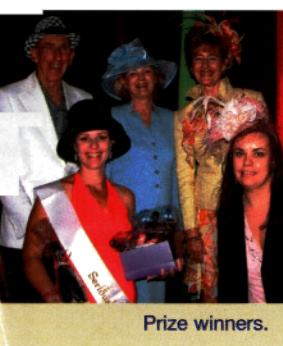

All in all, a great weekend at a marvellous location. Happy surfing Kahuna.

Peter Fenton.

Happy punters.

Prize winners.

MELBOURNE CUP LUNCH

There was no need to go to Melbourne for the Cup this year, because on Tuesday November 2nd, we created the excitement of Flemington - right inside Tattersalls.

The room was transformed to a sea of bright colours and the walls were decorated with a number of historic racing pictures.

A great day unfolded featuring a sumptuous selection of fine food provided by Simon Flanders our Executive Chef.

The two big screens showed coverage of the races and the convenient betting facilities kept the punters on the edge of their seats. Special guest Peter Fenton entertained the crowd with his racing insight and poetry.

Congratulations to Christine Hallows winner of the business card draw and Mark Constantine who took home the lucky door prize.

Special thanks to our sponsors Yellowglen and Tooheys.

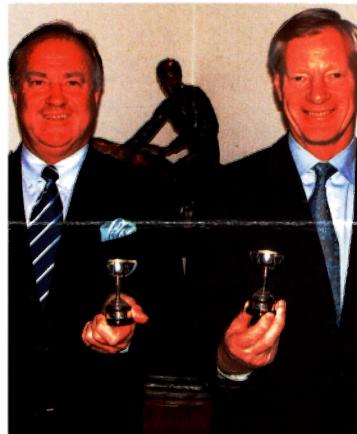

We look forward to seeing you at next year's event.

GOLF UPDATE

After a heat wave during the week the weather finally relented for the Northern Beaches Golf day on the 15th October and 36 members and their guests made up the field for this memorable event. After a warm up on the slick putting greens and a light lunch, the field got away just after noon and the last group got in right on sunset. Whilst the scores were not flash the highlight of the day was the 1.5 metre red-bellied black snake that hurried the last group up.

The event was a two ball best ball and was taken out by Mike McCormac and Grahame White with 42 points followed by Alan Brown and Robert Rolands on 40 on a countback. Mike Gillis pulled out a corker to win the longest drive competition and visitor Jim Cotis got to within 2 metres to win the nearest the pin.

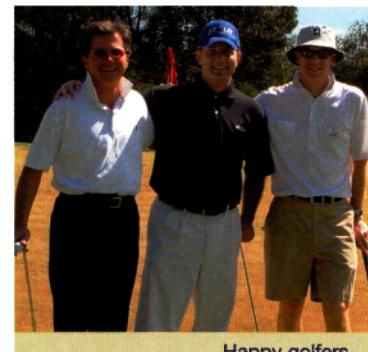

Whilst the scores were not that great, members should take consolation that the club championship qualifiers were played the next day and rounds in the mid 80's would have comfortably got you in the playoffs for A Grade whilst a 114 was the cut-off stroke score for C grade.

"RIGHT TIME, RIGHT PLACE!"

When injury caused a late scratching, Bob Sanders gladly answered a call from fellow Tatts member and STC Vice Chairman, Alan Brown to join his "Light Fingers" team in the VRC's Invitational at Royal Melbourne Golf Club during the recent Melbourne Cup Carnival.

Bob and Alan's scores of 39 and 38 respectively, with help from their playing partners from Scotland and Perth, was enough to lift the coveted teams trophy.

Happy golfers.

Teeing up.
